

Final date for the current furlough scheme

The final date by which an employer can furlough an employee for the first time is 10 June 2020. This will enable the current three-week furlough period to be completed by 30 June 2020.

Employers will have until 31 July to make any claims in respect of the period to 30 June under the Coronavirus Job Retention Scheme.

Government guarantees Trade Credit Insurance

The Government has announced that it will provide guarantees of up to £10 billion to Trade Credit Insurance schemes for business-to-business transactions helping businesses to trade with confidence, safe in the knowledge that they will be protected if a customer defaults or delays on payment.

Trade Credit Insurance underwrites an estimated £350 billion of economic activity for more than 630,000 businesses in the UK each year.

Exemptions from border quarantine rules

The Government has published a list of who will be exempt from new border quarantine rules taking effect on Monday 8 June. Those driving goods vehicles are included in the exemptions.